

DAYNAL URTEXT SERIES
TEXT AND CRITICAL EDITIONS

The purpose of the Daynal UrText Series is to present to a critical audience the range, variety, and quality of work found in The Urantia Papers. All volumes in this series are published in complete and unabridged form using formats amenable to critical study.

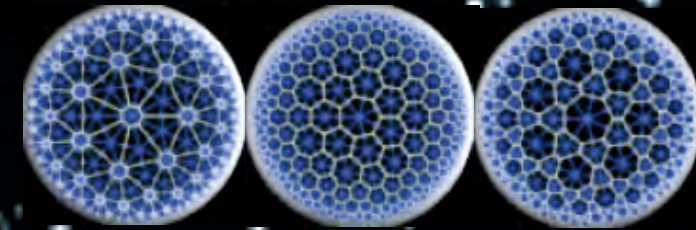

Complementing the full text featured in the basic Text Editions, the Critical Editions will include an introduction, bibliography of comparative and critical studies, glossaries, and textual notes helpful to students and teachers in a variety of settings prepared by the Nordan Editorial Team.

DAYNAL INSTITUTE PRESS
IS ONE SERVICE PROJECT OF THE DAYNAL INSTITUTE

A NETWORK OF PERSONS EXPLORING
THE SPIRITUAL COUNTERPART OF
ADVANCING MATERIAL KNOWLEDGE AND TEMPORAL WISDOM

DAYNAL INSTITUTE PRESS

ANNOUNCES
PUBLICATION
OF

DAYNAL
URTEXT
SERIES

TEACHING MISSION DIALOGUES

2008 - 2013

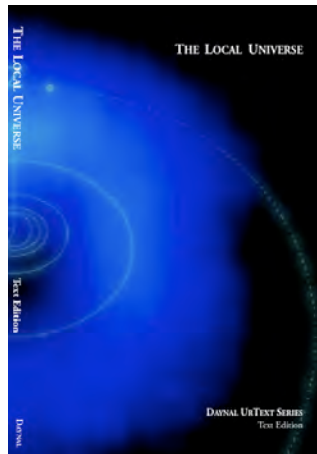

The Central and Superuniverses

These papers are the core of this unique cosmology commissioned by a delegation of spiritual intelligences from the capitol of the Superuniverse where the planet Earth resides.

◀ Text Edition - ISBN- 978-1-935187-00-4
Fall 2008 Price TBA

ISBN-978-0-9801209-3-6 - Critical Edition ▶
Spring 2013 USD Price $24.00

The Local Universe

These papers describe the history, organization, and culture of the local universe where the planet Earth resides.

◀ Text Edition - ISBN- 978-1-935187-01-1
Fall 2008 Price TBA

ISBN-978-0-9801209-4.3 - Critical Edition ▶
Fall 2011 USD Price $20.00

The History of Urth

This volume is derived from the archives of a local constellation headquarters and portrays the antecedents and early history of this planet.

◀ Text Edition - ISBN- 978-1-935187-02-8
Fall 2008 Price TBA

ISBN-978-0-9801209-5-0 - Critical Edition ▶
Spring 2012 Price $29.00

Jesus: The Life

This unprecedented narrative of Jesus' life, based on records kept by a celestial being once assigned to the care of the apostle Andrew, is challenging philosophers, scientists, and countless others.

◀ Text Edition - ISBN- 978-1-935187-03-5
Spring 2010 Price TBA

ISBN-978-0-9801209-6-7-Critical Edition v1 ▶
ISBN-978-0-9801209-2-9-Critical Edition v2 ▶
Fall 2010 Price $34.00

The Teaching Mission: Dialogues—DVD

ISBN - 978-0-9801209-9-8
USD Price - $15.00 (free annual updates)

Fall 2009

The complete archive of dialogues transmitted and transcribed by countless persons around the world participating in what is known as the Teaching Mission, a curriculum of lessons in divine love. The instruction is available simply by attuning oneself to the gifts unfolding within all who would receive the benefits of healing freely available in this “Correcting Time,” an era characterized by accelerating disclosures of who we are as a species at home in a universe guided by a perfect love conditioned only by our relative exposures to such light over the course of our lives.

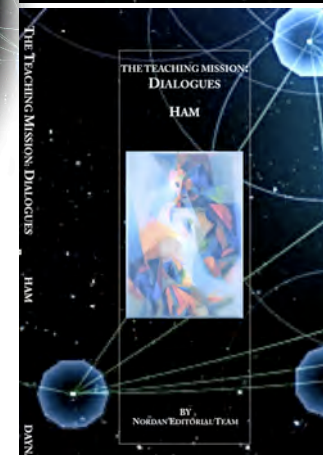

The Teaching Mission: Dialogues—Jesus

ISBN - 978-1-935187-04-2
USD Price - $15.00

Fall 2009

Jesus, often known as Michael, the Creator of this universe, who said to detractors of his day, “before Abraham was, I AM” is here-now, as ever, speaking freely to any who would listen.

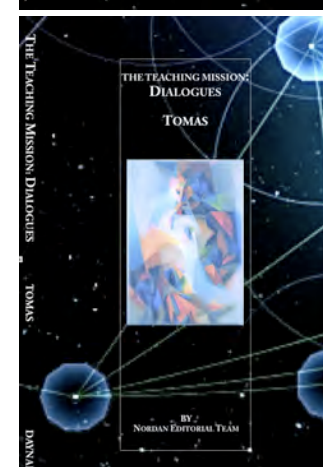

The Teaching Mission: Dialogues—Ham

ISBN - 978-1-935187-05-9
USD Price - $15.00

Spring 2010

Ham, the “dean” of a group of ascendant teachers assigned to the “special education” of mortals living in this realm, offers his counsel and instruction freely, to any who would listen.

The Teaching Mission: Dialogues—Tomas

ISBN - 978-1-935187-06-6
USD Price - $15.00

Spring 2010

Tomas, a cultural anthropologist on his native world; serving now as an ascendant teacher assigned to the ‘special education’ of mortals living in this realm, offers his counsel and instruction freely, to any who would listen.

From the complete archive of Teaching Mission Dialogues